Awareness

Awareness

When life's visual and cognitive,

it's content cannot be known.

When life's percieved as light,

it's outer forms are uncertain.

When life's stuggle and war,

it's inner forms are closed.

When life's love's embodiment,

all outer forms are possible.

When life's love's radiation,

even stones radiate this.

You also are both;

a true lover percieves this

and rides love's waves.

All outer forms collapse into one loves' of such multitudes

.....You
