

Remember

Remember

I forgot You in the depth of my despair.

My answer to your question:

"How much love do you have?"

Everything I am and have, I will give
for my brother, he is all, he is more than I.

I forgot You in the depth of my despair;

The one who is asking the question.

"save me, if not save my brother".

You were present; hearing, whispering.

Everything I am and have I will give
For my brother, he is all, he is more than I.

I forgot You in the depth of my despair;

You were there; hearing, whispering.

You have always been there;

Everything I am and have I will give
for You, You are all and more than I.

I remember, I remember You.

You who showed me the depth of despair;

You who taught me the depth of love;

You were always there; whispering.

I remember, I remember, whisper more...
