

To live

To live

To live one's life as a dream.
Unity exists when life and dream
have become the same.
The overwhelming madness of others can be forgiven and -gotten;
This is when true happiness
arrives and counters all mad-&illnesses.
Madness of the soul is released,
simply because no differential exists;
The dream has come to life.
You have come to full life.

..To dream, perchance to awaken..
